1. I am not moved, dear Lord, to love Thee By hope of Hea-ven's ten-der bliss.
2. So great-ly moved by love to love Thee, I seek not Hea-ven's re-com - pense.

7

Nor am I moved, dear Lord, to fear Thee By dread of Hell's re - mote a - byss.
So greatly moved by love to fear Thee, I cease from all that gives of - fense.

13

Thou art what moves me, Lord, Hung from a cross and scorned;
I need no gifts, dear Lord, To bind my heart to Thine.

17

Thy bo-dy pierced by nail and sword, Thy spi - rit mocked by crush of thorn.
Did I not hope for love's re - ward, I loved Thee still to end of time.
